

CHRISTMAS VOCABULARY

Papá Noel: This is the Spanish equivalent of Santa Claus.

Regalos: This word means “gifts” and is an important part of the Christmas season.

La Estrella: This is the star that is placed at the top of the Christmas tree.

Las Castañas: These are chestnuts. They are a popular treat during the Christmas season.

Turrón: This is a type of nougat candy.

Giraldas: These are garlands used as Christmas decorations..

Corona: This is the Christmas wreath to decorate the doors.

Calcetines de Navidad: These are the Christmas stockings.

Villancicos: These are Christmas carols in Spanish.

Árbol de Navidad: This is the Christmas tree.

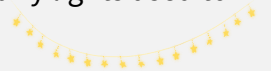

El Bastón de Caramelo: This is the candy cane.

El Pavo: This is the turkey.

Luces de Navidad: These are fairy lights used to decorate.

Bolas de Navidad: These are Christmas baubles used to decorate the tree.

Chimenea: This is the chimney.

Hogar: This is the fireplace.

Phrases to wish Happy Holidays

¡Feliz Navidad! - This is the most common way to say “Merry Christmas” in Spanish. It literally translates to “Happy Nativity.”.

¡Felices Fiestas! - This is a more general greeting that translates to “Happy Holidays.” It is used during the Christmas season.

¡Feliz Año Nuevo! - This means “Happy New Year” and can be used to wish someone a prosperous new year.