

NEW YEAR VOCABULARY IN SPANISH

Fuegos artificiales: This means "fireworks"

Brindis: This word means "toast" and the verb phrase is "hacer un brindis".

Uvas: One of the most popular traditions is the eating of 12 grapes at midnight.

Las doce: This means "twelve o'clock" and the phrase is "a las doce" (at twelve).

Medianoche: This means midnight.

Sombrero: This is a party hat for New Year's parties.

Cuenta regresiva: This is the countdown to twelve.

Banderolas: These are small triangular flags.

Champaña: This is champagne and it is used to toast at midnight.

Descorchar: This is the verb to uncork a bottle of champagne.

Calendario: This is "calendar".

Reloj: This is clock.

Antifaz: This is a mask that covers the eyes area.

Confeti: This is "confetti".

Fiesta: This is party.

Petardo: This is the firecracker.

Phrases to wish Happy New Year in Spanish

"¡Feliz Año Nuevo!" - which translates to "Happy New Year!"

"Te deseo un próspero año nuevo" - which means "I wish you a prosperous new year."

"Mis mejores deseos en este año" - which means "My best wishes for this year"

"Próspero Año Nuevo" - which translates to "Prosperous New Year"

